

I am urging FCC Chairman Michael Powell to delay the voting on the media consolidation issue until there has been time for debate and careful consideration of the repercussions of the issue. A diverse media is a basic element to a true democracy. We must not limit the public's right to many opinions not colored by a few who would own all media outlets. Thank you for your careful consideration of this very important issue.